The Polish Cultural Club of Greater Hartford, Inc. was established in 1976 with a mission to preserve, promote, and share the history, culture, and customs of Poland with fellow Americans. The Club engages in many activities, some of which include:

Awarding of annual scholarships to deserving students of Polish heritage at the undergraduate level (the Jennie Marconi- avorski Scholarship).

Sponsoring the annual Christmas SZOPKA COMPETITION AND FESTIVAL consisting of vendors selling Polish items and Christmas wares, foods and delicacies, and Święty Mikołaj. The focal point of the event is a Szopka-making contest where children submit original creations of Cracovian mangers for judging and monetary awards. Adults are also welcome to participate.

Sponsoring the annual WIGILIA, "Polish Christmas Eve," celebrated with the sharing of the opłatek, followed by a typical traditional meatless dinner, and concluding with kolędy (Christmas carols).

Presenting demonstrations of folk art, such as pisanki (colored Easter eggs), wycinanki (elaborate paper cutouts), and szopka making.

Supporting authors, artists, and individuals of Polish heritage by sponsoring lectures, concerts, exhibits, and movies.

Participating in various multi-cultural and community events.

Participating each May in "Polish Day at the Capitol," which observes the Polish Constitution enacted on May 3, 1791 and recognizes distinguished CT individuals of Polish heritage.

Maintaining a working relationship with Central Connecticut State University in New Britain and its Library of Polish Archives.. The Club made a substantial monetary donation toward the establishment of the Stanislaus A. Blejwas Chair in Polish and Polish-American Studies.

Assisting in the completion of the Kosciuszko Squadron Commemorative Exhibit at the New England Air Museum.

Membership in the national American Council for Polish Culture. All PCCGH members automatically become members of the ACPC and receive its newsletter published three times a year.

Members also receive the Club newsletter and invitations to all events and programs scheduled throughout the year. You are also eligible for free admission to the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford as part of the Club's "Institutional Membership." All you need do is state that you are a member of the Polish Cultural Club at the admissions desk.

We welcome anyone who is interested in sharing our mission to become a member -- one does not need to be of Polish heritage. Please consider joining us.
